ITEM 1

“Lord” I have so many enemies. So many people have turned against me. They say to themselves, God will not rescue him. But you, Lord, protect me. You bring me honor, you give me hope. I will pray to the Lord, and He will answer me from his Holy Mountain. I can lie down to rest and know that I will wake up, because the Lord covers and protects me. So, I will not be afraid of my enemies even if thousands of them surround me. Psalms 3:1-6 GNB

Task

- a). How can the above text help modern Christians to strengthen their faith in God? (10 Scores)

Nakandi and Nabaweesi are married to Ssekitoleko for a period of ten years. Ssekitoleko gave each of them land to carry out farm work and other related family activities. However Nakandi is not contented with the land her husband gave her. She is always conflicting or fighting with her co-wife claiming that Nabaweesi land is more fertile than hers. This has intensified their sour relationship.

TASK

- By using Christian approaches, advise Nakandi and Nabaweesi on how to settle their differences in their family. (10 scores)
- b). Using African traditional approach, show how the two should settle the conflict and live in peace. (10 scores)

SECTION B

PART 1 (Choose One Item from This Part)

ITEM 3.

“The Lord hates people, who use dishonest scales, he is happy with honest weight. People who are proud will soon be disgraced. It’s wise to be modest.

If you are good, you are guided by honesty. People who can’t be trusted are destroyed by their own dishonesty. Riches will do you no good on the day you face death, but honesty can save you. Honesty makes a good person’s life easier but to the wicked, will cause their downfall. Righteousness rescues those who are honest, but those who can’t be trusted are trapped by their own greed. When the wicked die, their hope dies with them, Confidence placed in riches comes to nothing. Proverbs 11:1-7 GNB

TASK

- a). Using the Christian view, how can the above text help Christians to acquire and live with their wealth. (10 scores)
- b). Relate the above text with how modern people acquire wealth. (10 scores)

ITEM 4.

Mukasa has two boys who completed their studies. However they are not willing to work with their father who is a farmer, they go for destructive leisure activities like clubbing, alcohol, drug abuse, discos and most times are arrested by police and it’s their father to bail them out. They have failed completely to develop themselves.

TASK

Use the traditional and Christian approaches and advise Mukasa on how to deal with the situation in the scenario. (20 scores)

PART 11

(Choose one item from this part)

ITEM 5.

“But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your father in heaven. He causes sun to rise on evil and the good and sends rain on the righteous and the wicked. If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that? And if you greet only your people, what are you doing to others? Do even pagans do that? Be perfect, therefore as your heavenly father is perfect. Mathew 5:44-48 NIV.

TASK

- a). Using Christian knowledge how can the above text help Christians to live in harmony with their neighbors. (10 Scores)
- b). Relate the above text with the African traditional ways of maintaining peace and harmony.

ITEM 6.

In Wakimese village, there existed a wrangle between Mr. Ssekabira and his neighbor Mr. Kairu. The battle came as a result of land boundary which they share. Mr. Ssekabira accused Mr. Kairu of being aggressive as he uses the boundary by force. As a result, they fought and almost killed each other. The chairperson called for a village meeting to reconcile them. All the village members agreed that the two should reconcile and forgive each other. However, the two have failed to reconcile and their misunderstanding is intense.

Task

Using the modern and Christian approaches, explain how people should resolve the conflict.
