Dear Sir/Madam;

RE: INVITATION TO AN ADVANCED LEVEL PRINCIPAL AND SUBSIDIARY MATHEMATICS SEMINARS.

The Mathematics Department of Our Lady of Africa S.S Namilyango (OLAN) cordially invites your school for A' level Principal Mathematics (P425/1 & P425/2) and Subsidiary Mathematics (S475) Post Mock Analysis Seminars.

Both seminars will take place on Saturday 05th October, 2024 starting at 9:00am-5:00pm.

Each participant will be required to contribute a facilitation fee of shs.10,000 (Ten thousand shillings only).

The main purpose of the seminar will be;

- To address and inform students/teachers about the current issues in the subject and prepare students with skills of proper question selection in order to maximize the marks.
- To prepare and equip students with skills of question approach, question interpretation, organization of work and make them aware of the areas where they lose marks from (careless mistakes).
- To change the negative attitude among students towards Principal Mathematics and Sub Mathematics.
- To give the candidates interactive exposure to perfect their skills, knowledge and build their capacity and confidence as they prepare to sit for their National examinations.

The seminar will be student centered in smaller groups but with guidance of senior mathematics teachers

Lunch for the accompanying teachers will be provided, however students will be expected to cater for their own lunch and students must be dressed in school uniform

Copies of the seminar questions will be provided upon confirmation of your participation via email and WhatsApp.

Note that solutions to the questions will be available at a fee of shs. 3000 (Three thousand shillings only)

We therefore look forward to your positive participation and please call us to inform us about your participation for the good preparation of the seminar.

Yours faithfully,
