

Wanted:	Secondary Teachers
School:	Hawthorne-Scribner High School, Bududa
Location:	Kikholo Town Council, Bududa district, Uganda
Number of Positions:	15

REACH for Uganda, A US non-profit that supports quality education in Uganda, and its Uganda partner, the Arlington Academy of Hope, (AAH Uganda) have a 20-year history of providing and supporting quality education, healthcare and community development in the Bududa, Namisindwa and Manafwa districts of eastern Uganda. They are now completing construction of the first phase of the Hawthorne-Scribner High School in Bududa that will bring the highest standards of quality secondary education to eastern Uganda, offering an international outlook and competitiveness yet remaining relevant to local needs. The school is expected to open on February 15, 2025.

The school is seeking 15 teachers for 2025 for its S1, S2, and S5 classes. The ideal applicant must hold a university degree (preferably with a diploma in Education) in any of the following subjects: History, Political Education, English Language, Literature in English, Geography, Physics, Mathematics, Chemistry, Biology, Religious Education, Entrepreneurship, Kiswahili, Physical Education, Information Technology, Agriculture, Art and Design. Preferably, the applicant must be registered as a Teacher with the Ministry of Education and Sports and hold at least three years' experience in secondary school teaching.

How to apply

Send an application together with a current CV and certified academic documents to hshs@reachforuganda.org or hand deliver to the office of the Human Resource Manager at Arlington Academy of Hope Uganda, Nabutsiba village, Bumwalukani subcounty in Bududa or contact +256 2000946933 by 15th November, 2024. Interviews will be held in early December. Selected teachers will be expected to report to school on February 1, 2025.

AAH is an equal opportunity employer promoting gender equality and diversity. Female candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.