

2. The activity of the sample of dead <sup>wood</sup> is 10 counts per minute while activity for a living plant is 19 counts per minute. If the half-life of carbon-14 is 5500 years, find the age of the wood sample. [Ans: 5094.08 years]